By signing this request, the user expressly agrees to the following:

1. The user shall use the website for the sole purpose of viewing the data and records in which the user is a party in interest. The user shall not use any information on the website for the purpose of solicitation or any other purpose inconsistent with the viewing of the data and records in which the user is a party in interest.
2. The user shall not share access information with any other party outside of their firm. The user signing this request warrants that they have actual authority to bind their entire organization to the conditions contained in this agreement.
3. The Trustee will attempt to provide information in an accurate and timely fashion but shall not be liable in any way for reliance on any errors, inaccuracies, and/or incomplete information. Exact payoff amounts can only be obtained by written request through the Trustee.
4. The user agrees to hold the Trustee harmless from any claims, suits, demands, damages, or costs arising from use or access by the user.
5. The user assumes all risk that relates to the use and access of the website.
6. The Trustee reserves the right to terminate access for any reason, but not limited to, improper use of the website or information contained therein, without notice.
7. Any changes in the access or conditions of this agreement are invalid unless by express, written approval of the Trustee.
